

Breeding Birds

Breeding is a very happening phase in a bird's life. Birds need to find a territory, attract a mate, build a nest and raise young to be able to successfully breed. There are many signs that can tell us if a bird might be breeding. Go to your birding spot and look for these signs. Cross out whatever you find and make notes!

 Singing bird or Courtship display	 Visiting potential nest site	 Distraction display
 Carrying nest material	 Building nest	 Incubating nest
 Nest with eggs/young	 Recently fledged chicks	 Feeding young